PRAYER SUGGESTIONS

Jehovah El Gemuwal, you are a God of recompense. You are a God who fully repays when evil is done against your own. I praise you because you are Jehovah, the self-existing and relational God. I praise you because you are Elohim, the Creator God. And I praise you because you are Gemuwal, the God of recompense. Because you care, you see when I am wronged. Because you create, you can restore what I have lost. Because you repay recompense, you will not leave unchecked those who have committed a foul against me. For these things and more, I lift up your name Jehovah El Gemuwal in blessing.

Jehovah El Gemuwal, forgive me for trying to take my own revenge. Forgive me for being afraid that you won't. Forgive me for those times when I'm angry and fearful because I'm being bullied or wronged and I forget to trust in your great name, Jehovah El Gemuwal. You see all. You know all. You leave no stone unturned. I don't need to go tell everyone else when I am wronged. Rather, I need only to look to you because you will repay. You will not be mocked. Forgive me for forgetting this far too often.

Jehovah El Gemuwal, I thank you for caring. I thank you for not simply sitting on a distant throne, removed from the pain that is so real and evident in this life due to sin and sin's influence. Thank you for knowing what has happened – you know the truth – even if others cannot see it. And thank you for bringing recompense when I have been wronged, or for bringing others to repentance and then showing your mercy. Lord, you are truly holy, and your power is a beautiful thing. Thank you, again, for caring when I and those I love are wronged.

SCRIPTURE

“For the destroyer is coming against her, against Babylon, and her mighty men will be captured, their bows are shattered; for the Lord is a God of recompense (Jehovah El Gemuwal), He will fully repay.”
Jeremiah 51:56

JEHOVAH EL GEMUWAL

LORD GOD OF RECOMPENSE

Jehovah El Gemuwal, act. Defend the oppressed. Free those in bondage. Restore what has been lost. Repay when evil has been done. Act. Give mercy in healing, power in growth, and peace in knowing that you see, you know, and you are Jehovah El Gemuwal. I call on this name because you will repay and will give strength when I have been wronged. I trust this name and ask that you will manifest yourself as Jehovah El Gemuwal in my life.
